

The Punishment Of My Disobedient People Of Sin

“My people will not go, My son. They refuse to go unto My mission fields of lost sinners, My son. They must be punished severely, My son. I will rip out the world out of the hands of My disobedient people, My son. They will not obey Me, My son. Preferring the world, they stay behind to do their own will. Did I not say you are bought with a price? Then why won’t they obey Me, the Living God, their God and Christ, My son? My people refuse to obey Me, therefore I shall take their money out of their hands. Millions of My people shall be penniless, My son, without a dime to their name. I will take it all away, every penny of it, because they refused to use it to obey Me on foreign mission fields around the world, My son. They must be punished, and that most severely, My people of sin. My people are wicked, living in the sin of disobedience against Me. Few among My people will be saved, My son. My plague will claim millions of My peoples’ lives, wicked, disobedient people of Mine. They refuse to obey My commands, My son, to go around the world to preach unto My lost, My son. Millions will go to Hell without them because they are unreached people groups, My son. Hardened in resistance to Me, I have caused their hearts to be hardened through years of wicked disobedience against Me— they will not go. Useless by nature, I must destroy My disobedient people, as by breaking the stems off an unproductive tree. My people refuse to obey. The government is rapidly dissolving itself, and will soon be no more. Entire agencies will be axed, deprived of funding, My son. My New World Order of Satan will soon be here, the rise of the Antichrist. They will not obey, so I must use it against them, My son. My people will soon be no more, wicked disobedient people, forever hardened in their hearts. The Antichrist will soon be here, destroying My disobedient people. Few will serve Me— you’re one of the few. Go and do My will, My son, in your prophetic ministry. Destroy My people, My son. They will not obey Me. Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen, My son.”

The Damnation Of My People: “Talk to My people. Ask why they will not obey, My son. Called to My service, they reject Me by the millions for the world. Why won’t they obey, My son? My plague will consume them. Millions of My worthless people will die, simply because they will not obey Me, My son. Called to foreign evangelism, they stubbornly stay at home and will not go. I called and called them to obey and evangelize, they simply will not go, My son. Hardened in sin, their hearts are full of guilt because they stubbornly resist Me day after day, and year after year, My son. My heart is full of wrath to My disobedient peoples of Christ, My son. Refusing to go they incur My wrath which builds up against them day after day, My son. Refusing to go, My lost suffer damnation because nobody told them about Christ and His saving power, My son. My people refuse to go, My son, and refuse to obey Me, My son. They shall be damned forever, wicked people of Mine! Calling themselves Christian, they shall be thrust into Hell forever! Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen forever!"
